SAY!

(By CHARLES J. ARNOLD)

The winning by Harry Stamp of Putnam County of the cup offered by King Albert of Belgium for the best Belgian mare, which had not won it previously, was the high light in Indiana horse winnings at the International live stock show. He won this honor on Roachdale Hazel, a 2-year-old mare named for Mr. Stamp's hometown. She was reserve grand champion of the show. Stamp drew numerous prizes, including first yearling stallion, first and champion on 2-year-old, first on yearling mare, first on get of sire, first on produce of dam and second on the three best individuals. Roachdale Hazel, during the past State Fair season won grand championship in the four state fairs in which it was shown.

Mr. Stamp, has not only won signal honors as a breeder of Belgian horses. Only last year he was designated as one of Indiana's few "Master Farmers", which carries with it the honor of being recognized as an expert agriculturist.

For many years, Mr. Stamp has been recognized as one of the outstanding Belgian breeders in the country. In the past he has shown strings of his horses at the International show and has always been right up among the leaders.

It is said that Mr. Stamp probably will not bring home the great mare "Roachdale Hazel". Already he has had many tempting offers for the sterling mare, and, as Mr. Stamp is not simply a "fancier", but a breeder of horses as a business, he probably will sell the mare. Roachdale Hazel was foaled and raised on Mr. Stamp's farm, on state road 43, about 11 miles north of Greencastle.

Putnam county should be proud to have within its borders such an outstanding farmer and horse breeder.

Another little honor recently bestowed upon Mr. Stamp was his election as representative to the state legislature from Putnam and Owen Counties on the Democratic ticket.

CIVIL YOUTHS TAKE MONEY; ARE SENTENCED

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Dec. 6.—Three local youngsters who recently have run afoul of the law were found guilty on charges of incorrigibility and delinquency by Judge Edgar A. Rice in juvenile court Friday morning.

The youths were Christopher Roach, 13, James Toney, 11, and Fred Toney, age nine. The two older lads were ordered taken to the state boys' school at Plainfield while the younger of the Toney boys was ordered returned to the orphan's home on west Washington avenue.

Two of the boys confessed several days ago that they stole $22 from a local store. The lads spent nearly all of the money in two days, buying candy, going to shows and spending it on various needless articles.

Sheriff Hitch took the two older boys to the Plainfield school Friday afternoon.

SERMON SUBJECT ON RECENT GARY OUTRAGE

"Was Prohibition Responsible For the Gary Outrage?" will be the subject upon which Rev. B. H. Bruner will preach Sunday evening at the Union service of the Christian church and Presbyterian congregations in the Presbyterian church.

So much has been said in the last few days about the part of prohibition in this outrage, and so much is being said in the wet press of the national about the responsibility of prohibition for crime in general that the people of this community are invited to think about this question for a while. Mr. Bruner plans to raise some questions which every loyal church member and citizen ought to think about. The public is invited to this service. The hour is 7:30 p. m.

BROWN COUNTY SEAT FACES A WATER FAMINE

SALT CREEK DRY AND NASHVILLE IS IN DIRE STRAITS—NO RAIN OF CONSEQUENCE SINCE LAST APRIL—PUBLIC WELL FAILS

NASHVILLE, Ind., Dec. 6.—Nashville is experiencing one of the worst water famines in its history. Small stream adjacent to the town are entirely dry. Salt Creek contains less water than has ever been known, and in many places it is possible to walk in the creek bed for a distance of 300 yards or more without coming in contact with water.

The creek, generally from two to six feet deep, is now composed of "pot holes," at intervals of about 200 feet. The water is in such condition as to make it unfit for use—except for stock. Leaves falling into the creek have polluted the water and small fish are dying by the hundreds. One resident found two cat fish, weighing perhaps five pounds each, dead in a little "pot hole" in the creek near his home, a few days ago. The county's supply of water for the court house and jail is pumped from Salt Creek and it has been necessary on several occasions to excavate in the bed of the creek to get water from holes farther up the creek.

There has been no rainfall of consequence here since the last week in April. Gardens and small crops were a complete failure. Nashville and immediate vicinity seemed to have fared worse than other sections of the county in the drought, which is still unbroken here. There have been several dashing rains of short duration but these did little, if any good.

It is estimated that three fourths of the wells in Nashville are dry. Most of these are dug wells. A well in the public square, known as the "public well" which has never been known to go dry, has failed.

BRAZIL MAN IS ACQUITTED IN NEGLIGENCE CASE

EVIDENCE IS HEARD FRIDAY

Was Charged With Failure To Provide For Seven Children—Farmer Washington Township Man Pleads Inability

A jury in the Putnam circuit court Friday afternoon acquitted Roscoe Bennett of Brazil of a charge of child neglect. The jury reported at 3:15 o'clock, and the case went to the jury at 11 o'clock in the morning.

Bennett, a former resident of Putnam county, was charged with failure to contribute to the support of a family of eleven children as ordered by the court in August, 1929. The charges were filed against him by his former wife, Lillie Bennett of Greencastle.

Bennett was divorced from Mrs. Bennett in 1929, and has since remarried, and lives at Brazil with his second wife. He is a truck driver, and according to his testimony in court has contributed all that he possibly could to the support of his family.

Only two witnesses were called in the case. They were Bennett and his former wife. This is the second time she has filed against him in the circuit court here for failure to support the children. At the time of the first trial he was ordered by Judge James P. Hughes to contribute to their support, and the second affidavit was filed when he failed to make the stipulated payments.

When Mrs. Bennett took the witness stand during the trial Friday morning she explained that her former husband had failed since January 1 to make any provision for the support of seven of their children, who are dependent upon her for support. She told about her difficulties in providing food, clothing and medical attention for her children, and said that Bennett had become delinquent in his $8 a week payments.

Bennett, who followed her on the stand, showed that owing inability to secure work he was unable to meet the payments. The couple were married in October, 1907, and had eleven children, ten of which are living.

BOY FINED FOR PASSING SCHOOL HACK

Robert Bratton, high school student, was fined $1 and costs, or $11, when he pleaded guilty in city court Friday morning to a charge of passing a school hack while it was discharging passengers. Bratton was arrested on complaint of Clarence E. Bannon, driver of the hack.

In passing sentence, Mayor Cooksey pointed out that there is a great hue and cry to stop the practice of passing school hacks while they are unloading children, especially since the death of a little girl south of the city recently. It also was brought out that all school hack drivers are being urged to report infractions of the law whenever it is possible to ascertain the identity of the drivers.—Crawfordsville Journal-Review.

END COMES TO OSCAR F. LANE ON SATURDAY

AGED FARMER AND CHURCH WORKER DIES AT HOME OF HIS SON, FRANK LANE—FUNERAL SUNDAY AFTERNOON IN GREEN CASTLE CHURCH

The death of Rev. Oscar F. Lane, age 82 years, occurred early Saturday morning at the home of his son, Frank Lane, north of Brick Chapel, Putnam county. Mr. Lane was one of the county's most prominent citizens. An attack of heart trouble following a short illness was the immediate cause of his death. He was born in Putnam county on May 5, 1848. His father, Higgins Lane and his brother Angelus E. Thompson Lane, were born in Montgomery county, Kentucky. His father came to Putnam county in 1837 and the family came in 1844. Oscar F. Lane was married to Mary E. Wendley on October 21, 1872, she died only a short time ago.

The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the Greencastle Christian church with Rev. B. H. Bruner in charge. Burial will be at Bainbridge. The body will be at the Rector Funeral parlors until time for the services at the church where his many friends are invited to call.

Mr. Lane's parents were both active members of the Christian church. His father was converted under the preaching of Alexander Campbell, the founder of this church, and both of his parents were baptized by Raccoon John Smith one of the most famous pioneer preachers in this church.

Mr. Lane decided to become a minister and preached his first sermon on Jan. 5, 1865. This was sixty-five years ago. He attended Northwestern university which later became Butler college and was ranked among the

MANY DIE IN A POISON FOG IN BELGIUM

BURIED GERMAN WAR GAS FEAR-ED AS DEATH CAUSE—VICTIMS REACT AS SOLDIERS LACKING MASKS

IN FAMED LIEGE REGION

Villagers Are Panic-Stricken—Authorities Are Working Frantically To Find Cause of Mysterious Deaths

BRUSSELS, Dec. 6.—A mysterious poison fog blanketing the Meuse valley in Belgium for three days, has terrified the countryside and already has caused sixty-four deaths. Many domestic animals also have fallen as victims.

For seventy-two hours an extremely heavy fog has hung over the valley. Peasants, groping their way through the dense clouds of mist, have died in sudden and horrible asphyxiation.

At first it was believed the casualties were caused by the choking mists aggravating respiratory complaints, but the magnitude of the epidemic has brought fears that poison gas is responsible.

It is known that great quantities of German war material are buried around Liege, where most of the fatalities have occurred, and some persons believe this to be responsible. Others lay the trouble to some noxious by-product of an industrial works which has mixed with the fog and drifted slowly down the air currents of the valley. Still others believe a secret store of poison gas has been loosed in some manner.

Authorities are working frantically to determine the exact cause. A theory that the tragedy was caused by fumes from the zinc works in the neighborhood of Liege was discredited by the fact the plants have been closed of late.

A prominent physician of Liege today discarded the poison gas hypothesis and recalled a similar mysterious epidemic in 1911, when eleven persons died unexpectedly in one day after an icy fog. The victims were either elderly persons or workers in coal, zinc, stone, lead and sulphuric acid industries, with lungs unable to resist the sudden cold.

Panic has seized the villagers of the region, who have fled to the shelter of their houses and in many cases have packed in their live stock to save the animals from the unseen but deadly threat.

The village of Engis appears to be the center of the extraordinary epidemic. Fourteen deaths are reported there.

Among the other fatalities reported are eight at Flamette Haute, four at Flamette Grande, five at Yvoy-Ramet, ten at Jemeppe-sur-Meuse and seven at Othee. Others reported had died in scattered localities.

Most of the inhabitants are convinced that buried stores of German war gas are responsible. The victims have died just as did soldiers without gas masks.

The physicians who have preliminary investigations, however, were inclined to ascribe the deaths rather to the intensely cold fog rather than to any noxious agent. The minister of health has ordered the judicial authorities to make investigations of their own.

The fog extends over a wide area of Belgium, but it is only in the Liege district that casualties of this nature have been reported.

Petitions for chapters were granted by the convention to three universities. They are the University of Arkansas, Washington University of St. Louis, and Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical.

Invitations for the 1932 convention were received from nine colleges, Miami University, University of Wisconsin, University of Alabama, University of Mississippi, Ohio State University, University of Tennessee, George Washington University, and the University of Oklahoma. No action will be taken by the convention since the next national meeting is two years hence and other chapters will be added during the course of that time. A college as centrally located as possible is always chosen.

Goodnight, dean of men at the University of Wisconsin, grand vice president; G. Herbert Smith, assistant dean of men, University of Illinois, grand secretary; George B. Elliott, Indianapolis accountant, grand treasurer; and Prof. M. L. Wardell, history department of the University of Oklahoma, grand historian. Albert E. Heckel, dean of men at the University of Missouri, and R. E. Cloc, faculty sponsor at Miami University were elected to the executive committee.

The organization voted to print a Phi Eta Sigma paper three times each year which would be distributed to members of the freshman class and thus further the interest of the organization. Phi Eta Sigma was founded at the University of Illinois in 1923 and became a national organization in 1926. It now has more than 23 chapters. Indiana University and Depauw were the only two schools represented in Indiana at the convention.

INJURIES MAY PROVE FATAL TO ED. MOORE

LOCAL MAN SEES WRECK

Injured Man Rushed to Robert Long Hospital At Indianapolis—Had Not Regained Consciousness at 9:30 This Morning

Ed. Moore, about 35 years old, who has been employed by a Pipe Line company at Cloverdale, was seriously perhaps fatally injured Friday night about 11 o'clock when he lost control of his automobile and it struck a telephone pole on the National Road about four miles east of Plainfield.

Moore suffered injuries to his head, the extent of which had not been determined early this afternoon. The man is in the Robert Long Hospital at Indianapolis and had not regained consciousness at 9:30 o'clock this morning.

The man was driving toward Indianapolis when he lost control of the car and it crashed into the telephone pole. He was knocked unconscious evidently by a blow on his head, and his car, a new Marquette was completely wrecked.

Lester Conrad, Greencastle merchant, who was returning from the Capital City saw the crash take place. He was about a quarter of a mile away at the time. When he reached the car the man was unconscious, and was bleeding profusely at both ears and the mouth.

Audrid Flenor, another Greencastle merchant, who came up a few moments later helped Mr. Conrad take the injured driver to the office of Dr. Cooper in Plainfield. An ambulance was called and Moore was rushed to the Robert Long Hospital.

According to Mr. Conrad the car driven by Moore was coming toward him at an ordinary rate of speed, when it suddenly seemed to swerve from the road. He said that the wreck was evidently due to the slippery pavement.

It was almost impossible to identify the man immediately as a letter in his pocket addressed to Ed. Moore, Cloverdale was the only clue to his identity, and a call to Cloverdale resulted in the information that there was no such person residing in the neighborhood. Later, however, investigators were informed that the man was employed by the Pipe Line company.

In addition to the letter an expensive automatic pistol was found in the man's pocket according to word received here.

best students in that institution. He was in the active ministry for fifty-one years. In 1873 he became pastor of the Greencastle church at a time when the congregation was divided and was able to bring the factions back together and greatly strengthen and build up the church. In 1898 he was called again as supply pastor for the Greencastle church and served for some time in that capacity. His membership was in Greencastle church at the time of his death and he was an elder of the congregation. On his 81st birthday Mr. Lane preached in the Greencastle church and was honored by the church in a special day. This was probably his last regular sermon.

Mr. Lane held regular pastorates in Shelbyville, Ill., LaPorte, Ft. Wayne, Greencastle and Bainbridge. He also conducted many special evangelistic meetings in all parts of the country. He conducted over 1,000 funerals and baptized more than two thousand converts. The Bainbridge church, which he served for many years was the church of his father and mother. Most of the lumber which went into the original building of this church came from his father's farm.

He traveled over the state giving many lectures at farmer's institutes and other meetings. His family was one of the prominent families in the state, his father, Higgins Lane having served as a State representative, and his uncle Henry S. According to reports here, Detroit police believe Miss Owen was poisoned to prevent her appearance before a grand jury for questioning in regard to her alleged sweetheart, Nicholas "Diamond Bill" Dellabonta, charged with killing two Detroit policemen. Mrs. Cooperider said she knew of no connection between her daughter and Dellabonta.

NOTRE DAME CLASHES WITH TROJANS SATURDAY

LOS ANGELES, December 6.—South Californians were more football minded than ever before today as two great teams impatiently awaited game time. The fifth city restrained its enthusiasm with difficulty as Notre Dame and Southern California stood by for the fifth annual battle.

Only 90,000 fortunate customers had tickets, a record crowd for Los Angeles.

The rivalry between the Rough Riders of Knute Rockne and the Trojans of Howard Jones is short as football traditions goes, but it makes up for lack of years by intensity of feeling.

BANDIT BATTLES FIGHTS IN COURT FOR SEVEN YEARS

LEBANON, Ind., Dec. 6.—The seven-year-old case of Otis Scott against the T. H. I. & E. Traction Company, may be ended soon. The Indiana appellate court has denied the company's petition for a rehearing and there remains only a motion for transfer to the state supreme court to be disposed of.

Scott was a passenger on a car on the Terre Haute division of the company's lines in 1923 when a robber held up the car. Scott started to fight the robber and called on the conductor to assist him. Instead, the conductor fled from the car and hid in a clump of bushes beside the track where he remained until the robber left. Scott alleged he suffered injuries during the fight when he was hurled against a car seat.

A suit for damages was filed by Scott in Marion county and in April, 1923, was brought to the Boone circuit here on a change of venue. A jury in January, 1924, awarded him $2,000. The company carried the case to the appellate court and a year later the judgment given here was affirmed. Then the defendant took the case to the supreme court which in 1926 decided against Scott.

The case was tried a second time here in 1929 and a jury awarded Scott $2,500. The defendant again appealed to the appellate court which upheld the judgment in May of this year. The recently dismissed petition for a rehearing was the next defense move, followed by a motion to transfer to the supreme court which is still pending.

BRITISH SHIPS ATTACKED

KIUKIANG, China, Dec. 5.—The British gunboat Aphis has been gravely endangered by cannon fire in what was said to have been the sharp engagement in many months between Red cannonades infesting Yangtze river shores above this city, and foreign gunboats patrolling the river.

The Reds, it was said, instead of firing their usual scattered shots at the gunboat, kept up a continuous bombardment, dropping twenty-five shells from their muzzle-loading cannon.

The Aphis replied with fifty shots from her six-inch guns, but even these failed to dislodge the Reds or silence their cannon. The Reds were well hidden behind breastworks and continued firing until the boat passed from range. As far as is known, nobody aboard the Aphis was injured.

The British commercial steamer Wuhu, carrying Rear-Admiral C. K. McLean, commander of the British Yangtze patrol, was subject to a similar attack shortly after the Aphis passed. The helpless vessel managed to escape uninjured because of the Red's poor aim.

BAKER PROBABLY WILL HEAR SCHROEDER CASE

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—Harold Herbert Schroeder, indicted for first degree murder in connection with the High School road death mystery, probably will be tried after January 1 by Frank P. Baker, judge-elect of the Marion county criminal court, according to announcement Friday by Judge James A. Collins.

The announcement followed the filing of an insanity plea later Thursday by Schroeder's attorney and a request that the case be continued in order that a defense based on the plea could be prepared.

Judge Collins will begin the trial of Ernest Pryor, Martinsville man indicted for first degree murder Monday. The Schroeder trial originally was set for Monday.

PARTY SMASHES HOOVER FARM RELIEF PLAN

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—President Hoover grasped today for support among house Republicans after his party in the senate had smashed and discarded his proposals for drought relief.

The house agricultural committee was summoned to meet today in executive session and battle the issue of whether drought-distressed farmers shall be aided with an appropriation of $25,000,000 or $50,000,000.

Mr. Hoover wants the smaller figure, and has let it be known he will fight to get it.

The President's determination suggests even the possibility of a veto if congress insists on more than doubling the sum the budget bureau is prepared to spend on drought relief projects.

Administration defeat in the senate committee was overwhelming. All members of the committee present voted Friday to report favorably a bill appropriating $50,000,000. Chairman McNary of the committee, who also is assistant Republican leader, led the rebellion.

He and the committee expect the senate to pass the bill Monday. Both houses were in recess today.

The culture committee is standing by the challenges the administration bill in the house.

But Chairman Haugen of the agriculture committee is standing by the President.

The committee may increase the appropriation somewhat above $25,000,000 but not to $50,000,000.

As well, sponsor of the $50,000,000 bill, hopes at least to compel the house committee to make public the names of members voting for the smaller appropriation.

Administration opposition is grounded on the fact neither the $150,000,000 emergency unemployment relief bill nor the drought relief project is included in the budget.

With a deficit of $180,000,000 already indicated, enactment of the unemployment and drought measures would increase that figure to $390,000,000.

GIRL SET FREE IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Helen Hamilton, 19, was released in Chicago today by four bandits who captured her in Stockwell, Ind., Friday night as an unsuccessful plan to rob the Stockwell State Bank in which Helen's father is cashier.

The girl who is a senior in high school told police of East Chicago avenue station a thrilling story of how the bandits, claiming to be "Capone gangsters" tied up her family with overcoat belts and silk stockings.

They became alarmed and fled with her as their hostage, Helen said, after discovering a 15-year-old sister, Mary, had escaped from the Hamilton home during the holdup to summon neighbors.

Helen was unharmed on the long ride to Chicago, she said her captors talked mostly in generalities. They told her they were "Capone men".

Helen said, and boasted that they got $67,000 the other day from the Frankfort (Ind.) State bank. The Frankfort bank was robbed earlier in the week.

She was released somewhere on the north side in Chicago early today and told to "walk south until you come to a big Packard, which will be waiting to take you home."

MARYLAND DRIED UP SOME

WASHINGTON, December 6.—Federal prohibition agents and Washington police reported their first successes today in a joint campaign to halt the production of liquor in southern Maryland and its flow into the capital.

A blockade across six entrances to the city, kept every minute since Monday resulted in the capture of two liquor runners and fifteen cases of contraband.

Meanwhile word was received from the force of sixty federal agents in southern Maryland that nine stills and seventy-five gallons of liquor had been seized. The stills were scattered over 154 miles.

Amos W. Woodcock, prohibition director, expressed determination to try to up this region, termed by him "one of the sore spots of the United States" said the campaign would be the most systematic ever conducted.

GREENCASTLE FIVE WINNER OVER DANVILLE

TIGER CUB CENTER TIPS IN WINNING MARKER AS GUN SOUNDS IN GAME ON DANVILLE FLOOR FRIDAY NIGHT

With considerable difficulty the Greencastle high school basketball team handed the Danville quintet their first defeat in eight starts. The game was played on the Danville floor Friday night, and when the gun ended the battle Bausman's proteges were on the long end of a 23 to 21 score.

The winning marker was tipped in by McAnally, lengthwise Greencastle center, just as the gun sounded after H. Stone, Greencastle's veteran forward had missed a long shot with the score tied at 21 all. The game was a hard fought one throughout the entire 32 minutes of play, and Fleece, Danville center was high point man with four field goals and two free throws.

Hurst, Tiger Cub guard was high point man for the winners, but was very little ahead of McAnally and H. Stone. Hurst scored seven points, H. Stone, six and McAnally, five. The score at the half was 13 to 11 in favor of Bausman's drapery agitators.

Hardwood Hits

Boy Oh Boy what a game!

When it comes to winning a game in the last split second of play it is exciting.

We were talking about the Danville game last night at Danville. Score—Greencastle, 23; Danville, 21.

Here's the way it happened: The score was tied at 21 all, and Hank Stone shot one from well out on the floor which missed and Jess McNally tipped the ball a split second before the gun shot, and made the basket.

If you don't think that is close just figure how far it is from Jess's hands to the basket when he is almost directly under it.

Hank Stone had an off night last night. He missed shots that he ordinarily makes without effort.

We're kinda glad though. If Hank had been up to his usual "batting" average the game would not have been worth driving to Danville to see.

We honestly believe that Greencastle would have doubled the score on them if Hank had been "on."

Jess and Tucker Stone missed several pretty shots which would have boosted Greencastle's score past the double mark.

The Bainbridge team was all there to look the Cubs over. We wonder if the Queen of Sheba still thinks that any team that can beat them 4 points can beat Greencastle 20?

We tell you again that we don't like the games played in quarters—especially exciting ones. Every time they shot the gun the lady back of us would give us a big kick in the back. We only wished that the lady had been sitting there and Chester had been sitting there instead of us.

We left the gym last night not knowing who had won the game, as did most of the people. As soon as the gun sounded the players left the floor and Coach Shelton of Danville rushed out to the referee and there was quite a controversy. We stayed until the players had dressed and we were told that they were not going to play any more ball but said it would be left to the State athletic association to decide.

We wondered why the referee and umpire could not decide whether the basket should count or not, as they were there and saw it while the association was not.

Food for Party Guests

Attractive Refreshments Are Often the Secret of Home Socials

THE clever home entertainer knows that the right kind of refreshments, and the right manner of serving them, are going to determine the success of millions of women's parties this winter.

The following bridge party menu, for a noon-day luncheon and for afternoon refreshments, are simple to prepare, and they are especially suitable for dainty and tasty serving.

Bridge Luncheon
Layered Cheese and Apple Salad
Hot Buttered Rolls
Sweet Stewed Dill Pickles
Cocoanut Cake
Tea with Lemon Mints

Layered Cheese and Apple Salad is made as follows:

1 package lemon gelatin; 1 pint boiling water; 2 tablespoons lemon juice; 1 teaspoon salt; 1 red apple, cut in 1/4-in. dice; 1 teaspoon sugar; 1 package 12 squares cream cheese; 1/2 cup walnut meats, broken.
Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add 1 tablespoon lemon juice and salt. Combine apple, sugar, dash of salt and remaining 1 tablespoon lemon juice. Chill. When slightly thickened, fold apples into 1/2 of gelatin mixture. Turn into mold. Chill until firm. Beat remaining gelatin with rotary egg beater until of consistency of whipped cream. Fold in cheese and nuts. Pour over firm first layer. Chill until firm. Serve in squares on crisp lettuce with mayonnaise.

Afternoon Refreshments
Assorted Canapés
Tea with Lemon Sliced Nuts
Orange Charlotte
Cookies

To make the assorted canapés: Slice white bread thin, toast slightly, cut in rounds, using a small cookie cutter. On each round of toast place a small bit of mayonnaise, a crosswise section of sour pickle, another bit of mayonnaise, then a shrimp.

Slice white bread thin, toast lightly, cut bread into oblong strips, 1 1/2 by 2 inches. Spread each piece with deviled ham, garnish with a border of small gherkins, sliced thinly crosswise.

Orange charlotte is made by using:

1 package orange gelatin; 1 1/2 cups boiling water; 1/4 teaspoon salt; 1 1/2 cups orange marmalade; 1/2 cup cream, whipped.

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Chill. When slightly thickened, beat with rotary egg beater until of consistency of whipped cream. Add salt. Fold in marmalade and cream. Pile in sherbet glasses. Chill until firm.

Smart Comfort In Winter Cottons

NOT so long ago it used to be thought that cotton's usefulness for wearing apparel was more or less limited to spring and summer.

Autumn fashions this year have well demonstrated that cottons can be made for other seasons. Now the enterprising designers have gone still further and brought out cottons for winter.

At the left is a skiffing costume of navy gabardine designed with full regard for comfort and appearance.

The fabric is so closely woven that it provides comfort even in the coldest winter weather. The red and white pattern of the toque and scarf provide color contrasts that brighten the entire costume. Cotton corduroy is used in the skating costume shown at the right. The jumper frock and soft white sweater are features that mean comfort as well as smartly tailored appearance. The hat in contrasting black and white is one of the latest things in hats which are so popular this year.

Well, we see that Martinsville took Franklin on the Martinsville floor to the tune of 32 to 22 Friday night, and Greencastle's Tiger Cubs are scheduled to tangle with Coach Curtis' boys here next Friday night.

Get set, you Cubs!

ANCIENT CITIES FROM AIR

To pry from the mountain-locked land behind the Peruvian Andes secrets that have remained hidden for centuries is the purpose of five young American explorers who departed in planes for Peru on December 5. These secrets of archeological, geographic and geological importance they plan to unearth by camera from the air. Heading the expedition is George R. Johnson, fellow of the American Geographical Society and chief photographer of the Peruvian Naval Air Service. His partner is Robert Shippee, geologist, historian and second pilot.

Two monoplanes, the "Washington" and the "Lima" are carrying the explorers. The planes were christened by Senora Juan Mendoza, wife of the secretary of the Peruvian Embassy, at a ceremony at Bolling Field, near Washington, attended by Senior Manuel de Freyre Santander, the Peruvian ambassador, and officials of the State, War and Navy departments. There were also present officials of the American Geographical and Harvard Geological Societies which are co-operating in the expedition.

GRANADA

Delightful Film Is "Sin Takes a Holiday"

"Sin Takes a Holiday" is a talking picture that will commend itself to every picture fan. With more than thirty massive settings and a story of exceptional appeal admirably developed, the picture has real charm and beauty, while the comedy and dialogue are a treat. Those who miss seeing "Sin Takes a Holiday" will miss a decidedly worthwhile cinema achievement.

The eminent star was fortunate in the adequacy of her supporting players, the portrayals of Kenneth Mackenna, leading man, Basil Rathbone, Rita La Roy, Louis Bartels, Casu Pitts, John Roche, Kendall Lee, Helen Johnson, Murrel Finlay and Fred Walton being especially praiseworthy.

BOOKS AND CHILD WELFARE

That "civilized man cannot live without books" is more poetry than truth seems evident from a report of the recent White House Conference on Child Welfare which states that the average American buys only two books a year. This average American spends more on greeting cards than on books, according to the Conference estimates.

It is true that we read more books than we buy. However, public library facilities fail to reach 54,000,000 people, of whom 20,000,000 are children. The small circulation of both books and periodicals among adolescents is most striking. Only nine per cent of the 10,187 new titles or editions of books published last year were for children, although this represents a marked increase during the past ten years. Fourteen magazines with a total circulation of 2,094,573 for boys and girls are published.

Town and county units are helping to establish library facilities in rural areas. In 37 states, books are distributed by mail from central libraries, and in some areas the automobile is used as a "library on wheels."

¶ Not a home in this city but has its quota of discarded furniture, rugs, stoves perhaps, a wheelbarrow maybe.

¶ A few cents for a want ad and some one who needs the very article that lies rotting in your garret will call and pay you for it.

¶ You are better off—new owner is pleased—and the article itself is contributing to the reduction of the high cost of living.
